1812? 1813? 1922? 2024? HUH?

Why do the years 1812, 1813 and 1922 matter to travelers in 2024? A good question. Trust us: they matter.

It was in 1812 that the Swiss explorer Johann Ludwig Burckhardt traveling in Arabia unexpectedly stumbled into a crevasse that led him to the city of Petra. He was the first westerner to gaze upon its magic since the Crusaders passed through eight centuries earlier. A year later, Burckhardt was the first European to chance upon the giant 3,300-year-old temple of Abu Simbel in Upper Egypt.

Fast forward 110 years to 1922. British archeologist Howard Carter had a hunch something fabulous was hidden beneath the desert dunes of Luxor's Valley of the Kings. And it was he who discovered the treasures of the 30-centuries-old tomb of the 19-year-old Pharaoh Tutankhamun.

After Burckhardt and Carter, traveling in Jordan and Egypt would never be the same again.

Isram has been at the forefront of American travel to Jordan and Egypt for decades. We know both countries inside out. We know what's best to see, and where's best to stay. Just as importantly, we know what's best to miss, and which hotels might have been great 20 years ago, but no longer are. We have the pulse of what's in, what's hot, and what makes visiting these extraordinary sites both magical and uplifting, effortless and classy.

In Egypt, we'll make sure you see the very newest including the Grand Egyptian Museum and we'll sail you down the River Nile on boats that are splendid and luxurious. All shore excursions on most of the cruises will be conducted exclusively by Isram vehicles and guides avoiding the crowded cruise buses. And in Jordan, you'll not only see Petra at its best, but also have the option to experience the glory of Lawrence of Arabia's Wadi Rum, and the magnificent ruins of ancient Rome's Jerash.

How do we do all this? We have the strongest of partners on the ground in both countries: experts on travel, experts on hosting, experts on history. We've been doing this for a long time and our reputation is unmatched. And if you want to pair your visit with Israel or Dubai, we're equipped to put it all together with maximum experience, maximum efficiency.

Egypt. Jordan. Join us.

Major Holidays: Ramadan: Mar 10-Apr 9, 2024 & Feb 28-Mar 29, 2025. During this holy month, observant Muslims may not eat, drink or smoke from dawn to sunset. A 3-day festival celebrates the end of the long fast. Some shops may close on certain days during this period.

Transfers and Portage

Transfers to/from airports, hotels, ports and border crossings are included as specified in the published itinerary, provided passengers' days of arrival and departure coincide with their published tours. Alterations to the itineraries may result in supplements for private transfer services. Due to government and international regulations, porters may not be allowed inside the customs and security areas of some airports. At the Israeli-Jordanian borders, please pack light, as luggage carts are not available.

Air & Baggage Information

On some programs in Egypt, Isram includes domestic flights within the destination. Should flight schedule changes result in a necessity to alter the land arrangements, any additional expense must be borne by the passenger.

Passengers with Special Needs: Tour programs listed in this brochure require participants to be in stable and good physical and mental health, confident in their ability to undertake all activities on the tour chosen, in order to thoroughly enjoy the travel experience. A traveling companion is always required for wheelchair passengers in private cars. Supplements for wheelchair rental applies. Guide or escort in Private car will not be able to handle the wheelchair during the tour, except with the loading and unloading into the vehicle which carries an extra fee.
